

Dear Mr. Davis,

I am honored that you would take an interest in me and my quest for eternal peace and enlightenment. Although I am deeply honored by your inquiry, I am afraid I can not reveal the answer to your question for I am uncertain myself. Although I suspect that I was once a barrel, because something that enables me to meditate for months at a time is my uncanny ability to, as you Americans say, hold my water.

It is my sincere hope that this answer is of great assistance to you as you continue down your own path of enlightenment.

Sincerely,

Ram Bahadur Bomjam

P.S. Recordings of my meditation chants can be downloaded on iTunes for $.99 per track. Happiness awaits those who are devoted...
